How often does saying "HI" get you a discount on anything?

Dear Mr. Washington,

The opportunity to meet you and other community leaders from across the country was special and inspiring. In appreciation for you taking the time to get to know us at this years National Black Lesbian Gay Leadership Forum in Dallas, the staff of the Kick Publishing Company would like to offer you a special thanks.

To share our inspiration and gratitude with you, here is a special offer for you to learn even more about KICK! Magazine. For just $18 dollars you can explore Black, Gay Urban Culture in an intelligent, bold and creative monthly format. That's a 25% discount off the regular cover price for just being friendly. Through this offer you will receive a one year subscription to KICK! Magazine, delivered directly to you in a discreet package through first class mail.

Getting your life in the pages of a magazine has never been so direct and timely. KICK! Magazine covers aspects of your life which will never be found in Ebony, Newsweek, GQ, Elle or Advocate. Our fresh perspective is by and for people active in the Black gay community.

Subscribe today, and get your life in the pages of KICK! Magazine, Black Gay and Fierce Urban Culture. Oh, and thanks for saying hi.

Sincerely,

Curtis Lipscomb
